Please rank (from 1-5) your interest in the following focus areas of the cabinet, 1 being most interested:

___ Learn

Create learning opportunities that show how the work of United Way and GenNext impacts our community, by planning events and being involved. This is a great opportunity for someone to develop their community engagement skills as well as learn to coordinate small scale community events with the purpose of skill development and knowledge building. There is great opportunity to build a network and connect with community educators across many different sectors.

___ Act

Help plan and coordinator activities like the Day of Caring or other engagement opportunities. GenNext provides opportunities of many shapes and sizes to get involved with. This area focuses on creating a variety of opportunities that allow volunteers to provide hands-on, direct services to organizations and charities in the community. This is a great opportunity for someone to develop their community coordination skills and learn how to liaison between different service providers and volunteers. There is great opportunity to build strong skills in community planning as well as build a network and connect with those making a positive impact in the community through different initiatives.

___ Give

Support the community by giving your time through creating opportunities for people to donate and participate. Through 'give', this area focuses on creating different and diverse events that individuals can be involved in through contribution of time and donations. This area is encouraging the next generation of donators to start getting involved. Contribute by assisting with the planning and development of GenNext events like Let's Get Quizzical, the Masquerade Ball, The Big Freeze, as well as participating in building the GenNext Membership database and workplace campaigns.

___ Workplace Ambassador Network

The GenNext Cabinet is creating a network of contacts known as the 'GenNext Workplace Ambassador Network' to help spread their message and ensure the next generation of leaders are engaged in their community. They participate in GenNext activities and promote events and engagement opportunities within their workplaces. This is a great opportunity for someone to develop leadership skills and become a leader within their workplace to help inspire the next generation of supporters.

___ Social Media / Communications Coordinator

Communication, connection, networking and uniting! This position is all about using creativity and innovation to keep GenNext present in the minds of our community. This position is vital in letting community members know of the different opportunities to get involved with GenNext events and showcase the work of the United Way through sharing to social media and other UW platforms (Facebook/Twitter/Instagram).
